Crown and Hanaper Office,
Four Courts, Dublin, September 1873.

Sir,
I HAVE the honour to transmit herewith, as ordered by the House of Commons, a Return of all Clergymen appointed to the Commission of the Peace in Ireland, when in Holy Orders.

It is possible that there may be in the Commission some who took Holy Orders after being appointed to the Commission of the Peace.

I have no means of knowing the religion of these magistrates.

To Thomas H. Burke, Esq.,
Under Secretary.

I have, &c.

Clerk of the Crown and Hanaper.
